ENGLISH

Questions 1-3 are based on the following passage.

Young people must be educated in modern science, its methods and its mental attitudes. Without this education they will find the modern world utterly incomprehensible. But they cannot be good citizens of the world, or of their own national state, unless they are intellectually and imaginatively aware of the values which underlie human beliefs, motives and conduct. In this troubled period of human history, religion and the humanities are as vital as science to the education of good members of a good society.

The football coach at Government College, Faisalabad noticed that some of his players were frequently late to morning football practices and seemed somewhat lethargic after they did arrive. He directed his assistant coach to look into the matter. The assistant coach reported back that most of the late and less active players belonged to fraternities on campus which were renowned for their frequent and late-night parties. The head coach then prohibited all of his football players from being members of fraternities. He reported that this would ensure that his players would get to practice on time and that they would have more productive practice sessions.

12. The head coach's reasoning is not sound because he fails to establish which one of the following?

- A. He fails to establish a system to monitor his players' fraternity membership and to impose penalties for those who do not follow his new rule.
- B. He fails to establish that his players are physically big and strong enough to be successful football players.
- C. He fails to establish that his new policy will ensure that at least some of his football players will go to bed at a more reasonable hour.
- D. He fails to establish that his best football players did not belong to fraternities anyway.
- E. He fails to establish that the success of them fraternity system will not suffer if the football players are precluded from becoming members.
